Lilienthal Answers McKellar

By a Staff Correspondent of The Christian Science Monitor

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—David E. Lilienthal's statement to the Senate Atomic Energy Committee, answering Democratic Senator Kenneth McKellar's charge that he has "leftist sympathies," follows:

This I do carry in my head, Senator. I will do my best to make it clear. My convictions are not so much concerned with what I am against as what I am for; and that excludes a lot of things automatically.

Traditionally, democracy has been an affirmative doctrine rather than merely a negative one. I believe—and I do so conceive the Constitution of the United States to rest upon, as does religion—the fundamental proposition of the integrity of the individual; and that all Government and all private institutions must be designed to promote and to protect and defend the integrity and the dignity of the individual; that that is the essential meaning of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, as it is essentially the meaning of religion.

Any form of government, therefore, and any other institutions which make men means rather than ends; which exalt the state or any other institutions above the importance of men, which place arbitrary power over men as a fundamental tenet of government are contrary to that conception, and therefore, I am deeply opposed to them.

Contrary Tenet

The communistic philosophy, as well as the communistic form of government, fall within this category, for their fundamental tenet is quite to the contrary. The fundamental tenet of communism is that the state is an end in itself, and that, therefore, the powers which the state exercises over the individual are without any ethical standard to limit them.

That I deeply disbelieve.

It is very easy simply to say one is not a Communist. And, of course, if my record requires me to state that very affirmatively, then it is a great disappointment to me. It is very easy to talk about being against communism. It is equally important to believe those things which provide a satisfying and effective alternative. Democracy is that satisfying affirmative alternative.

Its hope in the world is that it is an affirmative belief rather than being simply a belief against something else and nothing more.

One of the tenets of democracy that grows out of this central core of a belief that the individual comes first, that all men are the children of God, and their personalities are therefore sacred, carries with it a great belief in civil liberties and their protection and a repugnance to anyone who would steal from a human being that which is most precious to him—his good name; either by impugning things to him by innuendo or by insinuations.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF EMPLOYEE'S OPTIONAL INCOME TAX RETURN

Who Must File.—If your gross income in 1946 was $500 or more, you must file an income tax return on Employee's Optional Income Tax Return or on Form 1040 which may be obtained from the Collector of Internal Revenue, your employer, bank, or post office.

Who May Use Optional Return.—You may use the optional return if your total income was less than $5,000 and consisted wholly of wages reported on Withholding Statements (Form W-2) or of such wages and not more than $100 of other wages, dividends, and interest.

Married Couple—Advantage of Combined Return.—A married couple may use Employee's Optional Income Tax Return to show their combined income if the total is less than $5,000 and consists entirely of wages reported on Withholding Statements (Form W-2) or of such wages and not more than $100 of other wages, dividends, and interest. A combined return on the optional form never results in more tax than separate returns because the tax is computed by the collector on the combined income or on the separate incomes, whichever results in the lesser tax or larger refund for the couple.

Income Under $500.—A single person with less than $500 income should file a return to get a refund if tax was withheld. A married person with less than $500 income should always file a combined return with husband or wife to get the lesser tax or larger refund for the couple.

How to Use Optional Return.—Completely fill out the form on the back of the Withholding Statement (Form W-2). If you received more than one statement or if husband and wife who file a combined return have more than one statement, fill out only the last form received and make no entries on the other forms. Sign the completed form, fasten all others securely to it, and mail to the Collector of Internal Revenue for your district between January 1 and March 15, 1947. If any statement is missing and you cannot obtain a copy from your employer, you must make your return on Form 1040.

Payment or Refund.—Do not make a payment with your optional return. The collector will determine the tax and send you a statement for the balance you owe or a refund of the amount withheld in excess of the tax.

Deductions.—If you use the optional return, the collector will determine your tax from a table provided by law, which allows about 10% of your total income for charitable contributions, interest, taxes, casualty losses, medical expenses, and miscellaneous items. In order to claim deductions amounting to more than 10% of your income, you must file Form 1040.

Close Relative Defined.—"Close relative" means: Your son, daughter, or a descendant of either; your stepson, stepdaughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law; your father, mother, or law, daughter-in-law; your father, mother, or ancestor of either; your stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law, or mother-in-law; your brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law; your uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece. Do not include an uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece if related to you only by marriage. The above relationships apply to a legally adopted child.

Only dependent relatives who are United States citizens or who are residents of the United States, Canada, or Mexico may be listed.

A relative who files a combined return with her husband (or his wife) uses the exemption and may not be listed as your dependent.

Unhappy Circumstance

And it is especially an unhappy circumstance that occasionally that is done in the name of democracy. This, I think, can tear our country apart and destroy it if we carry it further.

I deeply believe in the capacity of democracy to surmount any trials that may lie ahead, provided only we practice it in our daily lives.

And among the things we must practice is that, while we seek fervently to ferret out the subversive and anti-democratic forces in the country, we do not at the same time, by hysteria, by resort to innuendo and smears, and other unfortunate tactics, besmirch the very cause that we believe in, and cause a separation among our people, cause one group and one individual to hate another based on mere attacks; mere unsubstantiated attacks upon their loyalty.

I want also to add that part of my conviction is based on my training as an Anglo-American common lawyer. It is the very basis and the great heritage of the English people to this country, which we have maintained, that the strictest rules of credibility of witnesses, and of the avoidance of hearsay and gossip shall be excluded in courts of justice. And that, too, is an essential of our democracy.

Failure of Ideals

Whether by administrative agencies acting arbitrarily against business organizations, or whether by investigating activities of the legislative branches, whenever those principles of the protection of an individual and his good name against besmirchment by gossip, hearsay and the statements of witnesses who are not subject to cross-examination are not maintained, then, too, we have failed in carrying forward our ideals in respect to democracy.

That I deeply believe.

[Later Mr. Lilienthal added the following statement to his extemporaneous remarks before the Committee:]

There are always witch-hunters and people who will gladly defame and assassinate the character of others without responsibility. That is why we have a system of law. And that is why we have courts, and that is why we have rules of evidence.

I will be very glad to be lynched if in the process of that lynching this lesson about what our history means is learned, and what the history of the common law means in the terms of protection of the individual citizen against irresponsible charges of witch-hunters.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Mr. O'HARA. Mr. Speaker, on this St. Patrick's Day I take this opportunity to wish my colleagues the very best "Top o' the Mornin'" and to assure you that the sun shines bright in Glocca Morra.

It is a high privilege and pleasure on my part, as a true descendent of Erin, to extend to you greetings. St. Patrick's Day is and always will be a day of national importance and I have it on the authority of our good friend Joe O'Brien that the O'Haras and the O'Briens on the Republican side of the aisle are true descendents of the Kings of Ireland and the Kearneys, Keefe, the Welches, the Devitts, the Brophys, Gavins, Gallaghers, Murrays, and the Maloneys are their captains. We welcome such recruits as the O'Konskis. We acclaim the affection we have for the O'Briens and the O'Tooles of the other side of the aisle, and we treat with tender consideration the Nortons, the Philbins, the Rileys, the Rooneys, the Kelleys, the Kennedys, Keoghs and Kildays, the Delaneys, the Monroneys, the Lynches—yes, the Republican Irish with affection greet the McCormacks of Boston and all of the "Macks," Scotch and Irish; the McConnells, the McCowens, the McDonoughs, the McDowells, the McGarveys, the McGregors, the McMahons; not to say also the Maddens, the Mahons, the Martins, the Fallons, the Feighans, the Flannagans, the Fogartys, and the Folgers, the Bradleys, the Corbetts, the Byrne and the Byrnes.

On this day on no less authority than the Kirwans and the Horans I am assured that the Sabaths, the Blooms, the Lesinskis, the Knutsons, the Muhlenbergs, and the Marcantonios, and from the Abernathys to the Zimmermans, will be a wearin' o' the green.

there are four basic components in achieving "self awareness" in relation to minority status. These are

(1) EXPLORATION of one's own attitudes in relation to minority groups and individuals

(2) RECOGNITION of one's patterns of behavior and their effect on relationships with other persons

(3) EVALUATION of what patterns mean in terms of motivation

(4) UTILIZATION of increased awareness to adopt new patterns or to reinforce constructive patterns already established.

Club Observes American Night

"I Am an American Night" was observed at the dinner meeting of the Quota club, held last evening in the board room annex of the Y.W.C.A. Miss Elizabeth J. Miles, supervisor of adult civic education, was chairman of the evening's program and she presented as guest speaker Miss Alice W. O'Connor, supervisor of social service in the Massachusetts Department of Education.

Miss O'Connor has served with the Division of Immigration and Naturalization since 1918 and she contrasted the work of the department in the days preceding World War II with the present program that is concerned chiefly with the problems of Americans who are interested in bringing relatives from Europe to this country.

Before the recent war 85 per cent of the work of her department was concerned with applicants for citizenship, Miss O'Connor said, but now they are asked for assistance chiefly in the matter of immigration.

Miss O'Connor devoted most of her talk to a consideration of the problems of displaced persons in Germany, Austria and Italy and to legislation that has been introduced into Congress in the form of an act called the Emergency Temporary Displaced Persons Admission Act which would allow for admission to this country on a four-year basis a certain percentage of these so called displaced persons.

At the conclusion of her talk the club went on record as favoring the passage of this act.

The program opened with the singing of patriotic songs with Mrs. Henry V. Donovan at the piano. Miss Mary F. Deacy led the singing.

The tables were attractive with red, white and blue candles and miniature flags.

During the business meeting Miss Mary T. Toomey, treasurer, was elected club delegate to the annual convention of Quota International to be held at Victoria, British Columbia, in June.

Final plans were made for attendance at the district council meeting to be held at the Hotel Statler, Boston, Saturday, with District Governor Marion Brown and Helen O'Leary, secretary-treasurer, in charge.

Massachusetts Poll

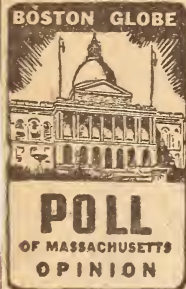

2 Out of 3 Here Oppose Taking Numbers of D.P.'s

The Boston Globe Poll, of Massachusetts Opinion, in a recently completed survey, found that two out of every three persons in the state of Massachusetts were against the United States lessening its restrictions on immigration to permit more displaced persons from Europe to enter this country.

Sixty-five percent of the men polled were against allowing more displaced persons to enter the country, while 30 percent thought it a good idea. Of the women, 58 percent believed that present restrictions should be maintained, 29 percent were for admitting D. P.'s.

Of all the income groups interviewed the middle bracket was most opposed to lessening restrictions on immigration, the lower income group was most in favor of the lifting of restrictions.

The question asked by Globe poll interviewers was:

Should the United States lessen its restrictions on immigration to permit more displaced persons from Europe to enter the United States?

Sixty percent of the people who oppose lowering restrictions on immigration feel that if countries which are members of the United Nations agreed to take their proportion of the displaced persons in Europe, the United States should agree to take its share. Thirty-two percent, however, felt that the United States should make no agreements in regard to taking displaced persons.

The women were much stronger for this sharing plan than were the men, 63 percent in favor to 57 percent for the men.

The question asked those who opposed lifting immigration restriction was:

If countries which are members of the United Nations agreed to take their proportion of the displaced persons in Europe, do you think the United States should agree to take its share?

Twomey Will Visit Europe

Assistant Clerk of Courts Jeremiah J. Twomey of Andover, past national vice commander of the American Legion, will leave Wednesday from New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth to study the problem of displaced persons in Europe at first hand.

Accompanying Mr. Twomey on this special mission will be four other members of the Legion's Americanism Commission.

Mr. Twomey will go first to England and then will visit various camps on the continent in which displaced persons are quartered.

While in France he will visit the grave of his son, Private first class Gerard N. Twomey, who was killed in action November 28, 1944.

In New York with Mr. Twomey to bid him bon voyage were his wife and his sister, Miss Mary A. Twomey of this city.

A recognized authority on immigration, Mr. Twomey will gather data to be presented at future Congressional hearings on the subject of displaced persons, a Legion spokesman said.

"many of these people are ~~app~~athetically grateful. One woman, in spite of the opposition from the priest, sent her seven children to a Congrgational Sunday school. To further show gratitude to her friends who meant so much by way of enlightenment to her home, she sent to the church a bag of potatoes raised in her own garden. That present meant a lot to her, for she was as poor as the proverbial church mouse and needed evrything for her own little flock. Such a spirit of generosity teaches us haow to give."

American International College notes

January 1920

"here are a few suggestions clipped from many sources.
ESTABLISH A MISSIOJ OR CHURCH FOR FOREIGNERS WHEN NEEDED.

After you have learned the actual needs and have establish cordial relationship with your foreign community, you will probably find that many desise to join a religious organization of a freer, broader, type than they have known in the old country. This is the natural time for the establishment of a mission among them. All missions for foreigners have not been established after such careful investigation. Where it is at all possible, invite the foreigner to hold his church service in your own church. It will add worth and dignity to your entire organization. Remember they have come to America from the lands of cathedrals and temples, where overtopping every structure in the little village was the house of God."

City of Boston,
County of Suffolk,
Commonwealth of Massachusetts..

Catherine Siemaszko, of 7 Mighth, east Cambridge, Mass., being duly sworn do depose and say;

That my son Paul Siemaszko enlisted voluntarily on October 16, 1917, at the age of 17 years without the consent of my husband and myself. He was sent to Fort Ell, Oklahoma and was connected with Battery B. 61st I.L..

As my husband does not live with me and does not support me, I resolved to try to obtain a legal discharge for my son from the Army in order that he might support me. Not knowing where to go, I spoke to several of my neighbors who told me that Rev. Father H. Chmielinski of South Boston had been successful in obtaining the discharge of several soldiers on receipt of pecuniary remuneration. I therefore presented my case to Father Chmielinski who told me that through his influence he could obtain a discharge within one month and if he does not succeed, then I would not succeed. Father Chmielinski then undertook to obtain his discharge within one month and demanded $100. I paid the said amount to him. I called several times on Father Chmielinski but every time he told me to come later that he was not successful in doing anything. I continued visiting him quite often and then was told that he could not do anything for me.

Later I again called on him with Miss Anna Stankiewicz, of 100 Main Street, Cambridge, Mass., and demanded the said $100. He gave me $40. which stating that he would not return the $60.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 7th day of December, 1917.

*Deaths andJeremiah J. Twomey
Lawrence Court Clerk
Dies During Rome Tour

ANDOVER, Oct. 6—Word was received here today of the death in Rome of a heart attack of Jeremiah J. Twomey, 60, clerk of Superior Court at Lawrence, Mass., one of a group of American Legionnaires visiting Rome.

Mr. Twomey, the report said, had not been well since he visited the grave of his only son, killed in World War II at Epinal, France and members of his party told reporters in Rome that they believed that the emotion he experienced had hastened his death.

Rev. Daniel Monaghan, parish priest of St. Thomas' Church, Philo, Ill., administered the last rites of the Catholic Church. A special mass is scheduled for tomorrow in Santa Susanna, American church in Rome.

Mr. Twomey lived at 200 Haverhill st., this town for the past 20 years. He was graduated from Lawrence Evening High School and Cannon's Commercial School in which he later taught.

He became secretary to the paymaster of the Pacific Mills and enlisted in the Navy in World War I. At the close of the war he reenlisted and during this tour of duty married Hilda North of Southampton, England. They had three children; Madge, who is a junior at Radcliffe College; Mavis who is studying at a Boston secretarial school and Gerard A., who was killed in World War II.

Besides his wife and children he leaves a sister, Mary, principal of Arlington Street School in Lawrence and three brothers, Frank and Cornelius J., both of Lawrence, and Frederick, assistant football coach and a teacher at Gloucester High School.

Oppose Movement of DP's Into Russia

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—Two House members, back from Europe, will suggest to Secretary of State Marshall that this country oppose the movement of displaced persons into Russia "or any other iron curtain nation."

Representative Chelf, of Kentucky, just returned from a six weeks' tour of DP camps, told a news conference today that he interviewed hundreds of internees who "are no more communist than any loyal, red-blooded American."

50 Nations Urged to Share 800,000 Displaced Persons

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13—A recommendation that the 800,000 displaced persons now living in camps in Germany be apportioned among the 50-odd countries constituting the United Nations, was made today by a special subcommittee of the House Foreign Affairs Committee after an investigation of 200 DP camps.

Instead of admitting 500,000 displaced persons to the United States as proposed in the Strattan bill, or even the limited number of 100,000 suggested by the Chelf bill, the House investigating subcommittee suggested that the UN take over the job of fixing DP quotas.

Representative Chelf, Dem., of Kentucky, returned to Washington today to report on the subcommittee investigation of the DP camps, now costing the United States $132,000,000 annually in addition to the regular costs of the occupation of Germany. He said the two other members of the subcommittee concurred in the recommendation that U.N. take over the job.

On the basis of figures compiled in the course of the subcommittee's investigation, Representative Chelf estimated that 653,000 displaced persons are receiving aid and an additional 138,000 are "under protection." Of the total of approximately 800,000, about 20 percent are Jews, he said.

State Committee for Civil Rights Organized Here

A Massachusetts committee to aid President Truman's Committee on Civil Rights throughout the state was organized last night by 19 citizens of Greater Boston, representing nearly every race and religion.

The group announced Thanksgiving Day must be observed in the true spirit of Americanism and pledged itself "to work for continuing the assurance to all Americans of those rights stated in the report of the President's committee; the right of safety and security of the person, the right of citizenship and its privileges; the right to freedom of religious worship, the right of freedom of conscience and expression and the right to equality of opportunity."

The charter members of the committee are:

Aram Bashian of the Freemarket Institute; Clarence Beasley, director, world outlook department, Y. M. C. A.; Clarence Q. Berger, executive director, Anti-Defamation League; Marion Blackwell, executive director, International Institute; Isabel Currier, vice chairman, Frances Sweeney Committee; John J. Delmonico, president, State Federation of Labor; Mary K. Fitzgerald, Secretary, Frances Sweeney, committee; Richard Hays, N. E. Regional chairman, Students for Democratic Action; Dr. John J. Mahoney, chairman Massachusetts chapter, Americans for Democratic Action; Mrs. Mildred H. Mahoney, Thomas H. Mahony, chairman, Greater Boston Community Relations Committee; Charles Malotits of the Demosthenes Club of Massachusetts; Mrs. Beatrice Murray, executive secretary, Joint Council for International Cooperation; Rose Parker, executive director, Boston Labor Committee to Combat Intolerance; Andrew Rice, state chairman, American Veterans Committee; Joseph A. Salerno, president, Massachusetts C. I. O. Industrial Union Council; Robert P. All-American

The football "All-Americans" that now dot the magazines and sports pages of daily newspapers have their more permanent counter-parts in the Massachusetts "All-American." This is the Republican Party's observance and honoring of divergence in racial strains. Representation of all bloods on the ballot or in appointive posts means recognition of a true democracy.

Gov. Bradford's nominations in a single afternoon included Valmore O. Cote, a North Adams citizen of French extraction, as District Attorney of Berkshire and Hampden counties. From Italian lineage, Dist. Atty. Charles R. Alberti of Pittsfield was named judge of the district court in central Berkshire county. Of Polish-American strain is Charles J. Kulikowski of Hadley, appointed clerk of the district court of Hampshire county. And from Boston, former Rep. Edward I. Kelley represents Irish-American stock in his post on the Massachusetts Board of Elevator Regulators.

In a state which includes 114,000 foreign-born Italians, 53,000 Poles, 64,000 Russians, 28,000 Swedes among others, the Massachusetts GOP gives us "government by the people." As Lt. Gov. Coolidge says, it welcomes minority groups.

WON'T CLOSE QUARTERS

Hub Detention Office to to Be Studied

The planned closing down of the immigration detention quarters at East Boston, announced Tuesday as in prospect as an economy measure, has been postponed pending further investigation, according to word received at the office of Congressman John F. Kennedy in the Federal building yesterday from Attorney General Tom C. Clark in Washington. As head of the Department of Justice, Mr. Clark has jurisdiction over the immigration service.

Decision to delay the discontinuance of the detention quarters until the need for them has been studied further, followed on the heels of sharp protests from port interests here.

Congressman Kennedy was one of those who urged Department of Justice officials to delay action on the projected shutdown.

MASSACHUSETTS FEPC GETS ITS WAY QUIETLY

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BOSTON, Dec. 13—The Massachusetts Fair Employment Practice Commission, in its second report to Gov. Robert F. Bradford and the Legislature, said this week that a decision to follow a "conservative course" in the fifteen months of its existence had resulted in increased job opportunities for religious and racial minorities.

Preferring to follow this course, rather than "conduct a punitive expedition in Massachusetts," the commission said it had sought to educate employers and workers alike to their responsibilities and obligations under the law.

Every complaint adjudicated, the commission said, not only had resulted in the elimination of discriminatory practices complained of, but also saw employers adjusting their entire employment policy to give equal opportunity to all people.

"The fact that the commission has not been obliged to proceed to a formal hearing with respect to any complaint of employment discrimination filed with it," said the report, "is, itself, a silent endorsement of the wisdom of the act and the manner in which it has been administered."

The commission said it either initiated or received 306 reports between Nov. 10, 1946, and Nov. 30, 1947, of which 153 were conciliated. Forty-one other cases were dismissed for lack of probable cause, nine more were dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, and one was withdrawn.

'MAROONED' ON ARCTIC ICE

Teach Them How to Survive

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13 (AP)—The Alaskan Air command is teaching its fliers how to survive if forced down in the arctic—by "marooning" them on ice floes for four days.

The pupils at the open-air classrooms are attentive because what they learn may some day mean the difference between life and death, the Air Force said.

The airmen go through preliminary instructions and lectures at their bases, then are taken out for their stay on the icepacks in groups representing aircraft crews.

They are equipped only with what they probably would have at hand after a crash landing on the ice. For purposes of safety, periodic check visits are made.
